The San Diego River Estuary Exploration!

Saturday, November 19, 2005 9a.m. to noon

Hike or bike the San Diego River and explore the different types of habitat plants and animals that make the San Diego River Estuary their home!

- Have fun identifying plants and other natural features of the Estuary
- Stop by informational booths along the way to learn more about the Estuary
- Help the San Diego Audubon Society clean up a section of the Estuary

Meet us at Hospitality Point (see map and directions below) to pick up your free brochure with a map of the Estuary and descriptions of all the ways you can explore your Estuary!
